The Situation and the Duty of the Hour.

EDITOR BRITISH COLONIST.—Those who have taken a common sense and moderate view of the questions which agitate the public mind throughout the length and breadth of the Province, and who can look beyond their own interests, and form an unbiased, intelligent opinion of the policy most conducive to the welfare of the country, have the melancholy satisfaction of seeing and knowing that their predictions as to the suicidal course persued by the local Government have been fully verified.

That Mr. Walkem, when at Ottawa, (on his way to England) failed to bring about negotiations will surprise no one outside of his few supporters and his immediate colleagues. Mr. Mackenzie, in making no fresh overtures, adopted the only course open to him as a good general, and as a man standing firm in his integrity, he would naturally suppose that British Columbians so long as they had not tested the efficacy of the "Imperial guarantee" would be unreasonable and troublesome, but that, once tried, as it now has been and alas! with what barren results, he then could the more easily deal with them. That Mr. Walkem will return from England a wiser if not a better man is certain. That after having fired off his pop-gun loaded with public petitions and Imperial guarantee, and being relieved of the swaggering importance of being equipped with such formidable missiles, he will be the more ready to enter into an arrangement with Mr. Mackenzie embracing fair and moderate term is equally certain. In future British Columbians and local Governments must rely on their own good sense, and forever bid good-bye to all hope of Imperial pressure being brought to bear on the Dominion to force the settlement of a domestic quarrel. Ye foolish petitioners! You have not left one shot in the locker for an emergency.

I have no desire to deal with the Railway question from a sectional stand-point. At the same time I must give expression to my firm conviction, viz, that all those who gave their countenance to the action of the Local Government have been traitors to the interests of Vancouver Island. Had they not foresight enough to see that all members of the Local Government witu Mainland interests would put forth such effort to frustrate Edgar's proposal from the simple fact of Vancouver Island being mentioned, and while they succeeded in bringing about a bad feeling between the Dominion Government and the people of the Island they no doubt quietly advised the Mainland to give its haraty approval to Mr. Mackenzie's policy. Happily, however, for the general interests of the Province, the Dominion Government is likely to pay as little attention to the ill-advised action of the Islanders as to the fawning truculency of the Mainland. How the astute lawyers and the shrewd merchants of Victoria could have been led into such a trap I cannot imagine unless it is that some of the lawyers, whether belonging to the bench or the bar, and some of our merchants, whether aspiring to be authors or not, have been guided by direct and substantial Mainland interests. I don't blame them for furthering their own interests legitimately, but I do blame them for practising duplicity, while outwardly expressing anxiety about Island interest, at the same time taking steps which will retard, if not entirely mar, those interests.

Mr. Walkem, who living in luxury in England at the expense of the Province, and spenading money which could be better applied in this country, and other members of the Local Government who are well paid for all the service rendered to the Province, can afford to postpone the settlement of matters of such vital importance to us. But can the country at large afford to wait? Are the people to hang their hopes on Mr. Walkem only to reap bitter disappointment? If the Islanders now stand in a false position at Ottrwa, let them at once, without waiting for anybody, take steps to place themselves right. Let them say what they are willing to accept so that they do not ask for impossibilities and having first settled on such terms as they would accept, let them by resolution at a public meeting affirm those views. That the first term cannot be fulfilled in the letter is admitted by nearly all; and even if it could, there is no desire to confine the Dominion Government to the time limit. Such being the case, then, why cannot the people have the candour to express openly what they say and think privately, if by doing so a settlement could be arrived at? They are to blame if they suffer affairs to go on in the unsatisfactory state much longer. Even the most sanguine among the Imperial petitioners, and the most ardent supporters of the Local Administration, must by this time feel convinced that no benefit will result from their recent action, and it is high time therefore that they should do the next best thing, which in my opinion would be, a definite and distinct expression of opinion what the people of the Province would be willing to accept, and command the Local Government to negotiate and ratify on the basis of such terms. I speak with all due respect for our Local Adminstration when I say that if they fail in coming to a fair and honorable settlement of the question in dispute between this Province and the Dominion before the meeting of the Assembly that they should at once reeign their positions. And I would with all soleminty to ask such of our citizens and fellow colonists as are supporters of the present Government to look at the state of our affairs wisely and calmly, not to let their present perquisites warp their judgement, and not to sacrifice the general interests of the Province for their own immediate gain. I repeat that we cannot afford to wait, although Mr. Walkem and his associate can. We must be up and doing.

Should Mr. Walkem on his return call at Ottawa and bring back an offer similar to that which he rejected, how can he or his colleagues make a sufficient recompense for the anxiety and depression which has hung over the public mind, and above all for the money expenditure and time lost to us, not for a time, but forever? Depend upon it, the money which would have been expended this year will not be taken to augment the expenditure of the succeeding one. The benefits, contentment, and satisfaction which would have resulted from the expenditure "this year" of over a million of dollars in the Province on railway construction would have been so great and of so assuring a character, and the evil of not stretching a point to secure those benefits, cannot by all the efforts of the Local Government be remedied during their life time. In writing this letter I have no wish to blame any one; but I found it impossible in dealing with our chief grievance not to lay the blame for the present conditions of things where it ought to rest. Unless the people move quickly they will lose another year. Let them at once take active steps and go direct to the fountain-head.

Yours, &c.,
CITIZEN.

TUESDAY MORNING, NOV. 17TH, 1874.

L. P. FISHER, 20 and 21 New Merchants' Exchange is our authorized Agent in San Francisco.

Quesnelmouth Speaks.

Elsewhere will be found a communication from Quesnelmouth revealing certain transactions calculate to present the present Administration in their true light before the public. If our correspondent be correct in his facts, and we have the fullest confidence in his integrity, there would appear to be too much ground for suspecting that, as our correspondent puts it, "closed eyes and open hands play too great a part in the present Administration." When the shoe pinches the body politic speaks out. It is not long since Quesnelmouth was for the Government. Indeed, it is but a few short months since they had a friend in our correspondent. Nor can the change be wondered at. Men with proper feelings of independence and a sense of right will not countenance such miserable chicanery as appears to have characterised the conduct of the present Administration. If this bit of business be taken as a specimen of the policy pursued generally throughout the Province, it cannot be wondered at that but one uniform voice of condemnation of the Government is coming in from every settlement. Isn't it monstrous that the affairs of the Province should be in such hands? The people not only of Quesnel but of almost every other locality will only be doing their duty to themselves as well as to the country by registering their votes with an especial view to clearing out the Ængren Stables at James' Bay.

Nanaimo's Complaint.

Once more has the attention of the Government been directed by a Grand Jury to the dangerous condition of bridges in Nanaimo and to the inadequacy of the constabulary force. Nanaimo, long important, has grown to be in point of productiveness and its maritime interests the most important community in British Columbia. Denied its fair share of representation in the Legislature, it has been systematically cheated out of its fair share of expenditure. For public buildings it can only boast of a rough-board whitewashed court-house and a jail scarcely more pretentious than a well-to-do farmer's poultry-house. Both together would not make decent outbuildings for such a courthouse and jail as Nanaimo is entitled to have. As for the streets and bridges in the town, the former can hardly be said to have come into existence and the latter have well nigh gone out of it. Had Nanaimo received anything like her fair proportion of revenue appropriations she would now boast of a complete system of streets and bridges. The treatment that town has received at the hands of the Government is simply disgraceful. We are glad, however, to discover in the columns of the "Free Press" signs of awaking and insisting upon her rights at the hands of both Governments.

The Quesnel Bridge.

QUESNEL, Nov. 8, 1874.

EDITOR COLONIST:—In the tenders for the construction of the bridge at this place, the specifications call for cedar piles. I think that if the engineer who examined the ground had made enquiries he would have found that no cedar can be found sufficient for the purpose within a hundred miles of this place. Is the contractor expected to import piles rom some other country?

Yours, &c.,
A. C.

Educational.

EDITOR COLONIST:—In your paper of the 21st October, containing an account of Mr. Jessop's visit to the East Coast, it is stated that want of appreciation on the part of the parents is the cause of unsuccess. Now, Mr. Editor, I deny the assertion. I would rather attribute it to the want of tact and the parsimonious policy of the Government. The prevailing opinion here is that the present system is unsuited to the nature and wants of the country. True, with a little more cash and brains applied to working it out it may yield better fruit. Here in North Cowichan the Schoolmaster has to attend to two schools, at a salary of, I believe, $45 per month, without board, yet unskilled labor is paid $40 and board. Now sir, if the country cannot afford to give us two schoolmasters, let the time be divided, say 6 months to each. It will not cost any more than the present day about way, and it will afford an opportunity to the parents at a distance to make some arrangement for the boarding of their children at a convenient distance from the school. Lately the old Courthouse school has been reduced to two days per week, school time, and the odd day given to the Maple Bay side. As I am not a believer in robbing Peter to pay Paul, I asked the local trustees by what authority such a wonderful change came about? The reply was that it was done by Mr. Jessop, and it was alleged in justification that the Maple Bay School was more convenient to the teacher during bad weather than the other school. Now, Mr. Editor, whether the parents can appreciate Education or not, I can assure Mr. Jessop that they are capable of appreciating the above fact at its true value. The old Courthouse school is a rotten log cabin, built in 1861. It is Goverment property, and, like its owners, likely to fall before long. There is scarcely a farmer here that would think it safe for his cattle in winter time. Surely the children will have little to thank the Government for. They can spend their (the children's) inheritance freely; but it seems they begrudge them a few dollars for building of a school-house, or paying a teacher, and the sooner they retire to the obscurity from which they lately emerged the better it will be for those who have stake or interest in that Province. JOHN MAHONY.

COWICHAN, Nov. 12, 1874.

Our Model Government.

The stag that eve had drank his fill,
The moon had played on Quesnel hill,
When the deep-mouthed jackass' heavy bray.
Resounded up the rocky way.

FRITZ, LILLOOET.

The popular impression up this way, Mr. Editor, respecting the present administration is, I can assure you, very far from complimentary. When Governor Musgrave paid his respects to Quesnel he acknowledged the necessity for a bridge. The people of Quesnel informed the then Chief Commissioner of their willingness to build the bridge on a fifteen years' charter with the rate of toll at that time collected. On his return to Victoria that functionary had prepared and sent to us plans for a stxiy thousand dollar bridge as a quietus.

The House of Assembly, last session, passed an item of twenty thousand dollars for a bridge. At the time we were well aware that it was only one of Anthony's blinders to gain votes. But when he next presents himself he will find out his mistake. Last election Quesnel had but five votes to cast. Now she has four times five, most of them registered expressly to defeat him.

Three weeks ago specifications came up for a seventy thousand dollar bridge!—another blinder with a vengeance! The impression here is that an election cannot be far off.

Mr. Barlow, our J. P., wrote to Mr. Walkem, enquiring about the Ferry. His answer was to the effect that no new charter had been granted, but merely an extension of time until a bridge could be built. On the strength of that letter Mr. Barlow stood a law suit with Mr. Marven's agent here, when lo! a new charter was produced and Mr. Barlow was mulcted to the extent of three dollars a load for hauling firewood across an ice-bridge which Providence threw over the river for the benefit of man!

In the fall of 1872 tenders were invited for maintaining a ferry across Quesnel river. The tender of Mr. G. B. Wright was accepted, and the contract for maintaining the said ferry for one year. Towards the end of the year the leasee put a petition in circulation praying to have the ferry charter extended three years. A counter petition was started praying that no extension be given except by open public competition. The petitioners received a letter from G. A. Walkem assuring them that no extension would be granted without due notice being given to the people of Quesnel; but to our surprise, at the expiration of the lease for one year, our friend and representative, G. A. Walkem, being one of the Executive Council, gave a new charter for the space of three years, or until a bridge should be built. I am afraid that closed eyes and open hands play too great a part in the present administration, and I very much fear that the foregoing is but a specimen of the way things are done.

The impression gains ground here that so long as Mr. Beaven's pet has the ferry and it continues to pay as well as it did this summer we need not expect a bridge; and as Mr. Walkem has sent up word that Mr. Marvin has the lease until a bridge is built, we have come to the conclusion that he has a life lease of the ferry, although he runs it for foot passengers by a siwash and a cottonwood canoe—a delightful thing to be caught between two cakes of ice in at this season of the year. If a British subject were to attempt such a thing he would soon lose his charter. But then this is a free country you know.

☞ The ferry charter was granted to Mr. Marvin privately, without any tenders being called for! BLUENOSE.

Exeter is the scene of a battle over "Dominicals." The clergymen of that bellicose city have had a little quarrel about the meaning of the term. The thing signified is, however, a tax to which some of the rectors of Exeter consider that they are right. Accordingly they have maintained their rights even to the length of seizing and selling the goods and chattels of obstinate householders who consider "Dominicals" to be a remnant of Popery and a clerical imposition. As most of the clergy who insist upon collecting the tax are what the Exeter Liberals call "Rits," their proceedings have been with vigour. The following paragraphs are from the "Times":—"An abortive attempt was made the other day to sell at auction the 'goods and chattels' of Mr. Sandford, the Dissenting shoemaker, in vindication of the right of the Rev. J. B. Strother, rector of Mary Steps, to levy dominicals. The amount levied for was little over £2, the greater portion of which sum consisted of costs. But the landlord had a prior claim for a quarter's rent, so that it became necessary to seize nearly every article of furniture in the house, including even the children's beds and bedding. The sale was announced for 11 o'clock. When the auctioneer made an appearance there were several hundred people in the street and the house was crowded. The noise and pressure was so great that he was unable to proceed. After waiting patiently for nearly an hour, he left the house without having offered an article for sale. He returned at 1 o'clock and made another attempt. One lot, a bedstead and palliasses, was started at a shilling, and bought by a member of the Anti-Dominical Committee for 6s. On the next, a bed, the auctioneer made a bid, but the uproar became so great that he was obliged to put an end to the sale, and went away at half past 1 o'clock, leaving the house and all the furniture in Sandford's possession. About a thousand people assembled outside the house, but there was no occasion for police interference. Had a sale been effected and an attempt made to remove the goods the affair might not have terminated so peacefully. Another Dominical distress sale was attempted at Exeter yesterday. The person levied upon was a Mr. Crabble, a small storekeeper, his pursuer the Rev. J. G. Pears, Rector of All-hallows-on-the-Walls, an ultra-Ritualist. The auctioneer intended to have held the sale in a public-house in the neighbourhood, but before the hour fixed the crowd assembled in the street was so great as to render useless any attempt to remove the goods from the house, and moreover, no one in the neighbourhood would lend his premises for the purposes of the sale. An effort was made to sell on the premises by offering the lots at the shop door, but it was a failure. For an hour and more there was a scene of much disorder." The "Daily News" considers that this battle at Exeter is a sign of a bigger fight over a larger question—"The question of the continuity of the Church of England."

The Duke of Northumberland writes to the editor of the "Newcastle Journal" to contradict the rumour that he has been received into the Roman Catholic Church. His grace characterises the report as a false, baseless calumny.

On Wednesday evening Prince Louis Napoleon made a public appearance as one of the competitors at a grand assault of arms given at the Royal Military Academy of Woolwich, under the authority of Lieut-General Sir J. L. Simmons, governor of the Academy, and in the presence of a large assembly, which included nearly all the officers of the garrison. A contest with foils, not on the programme, was incidentally announced by Lieutenant Torkington, R.A., who conducted the proceedings; and immediately two young gentlemen equipped for the encounter stepped on the platform, and were respectively introduced as the Prince Imperial and M. Conneau. The Prince was loudly cheered; and the two combatants, after the customary salute, got to the encounter. They both showed themselves good swordsmen; and Prince Louis, who is especially active, gained the first hit. Both fenced very cautiously, until by a dexterous thrust M. Conneau touched his friendly adversary's breast, and scored one also. The contest for the third and deciding hit was watched with great interest, till at length the Prince, after parrying cleverly two or thee well meant drives, got in his foil by an export movement and make a fair hit on the left breast amid much applause. His Imperial Highness also took part with other cadets in a series of athletic exercises, in which some of the students exhibited remarkable skill.

THE ALTITUDE AT WHICH MEN CAN LIVE.—There has been a great deal of discussion, says "Chamber's Journal," as to the altitude at which human beings can exist, and Mr. Glaisher himself can tell us as much about it as anybody. In July, 1872, he Mr. Coxwell ascended in a balloon to the enormous height of 38,000 ft. Previous to the start Mr. Glaisher's pulse stood at 76 beats a minute, Coxwell's at 74. At 17,000 ft. the pulse of the former was at 84, that of the latter at 100. At 19,000 ft. Glaisher's hands and lips were quite blue, but not his face. At 21,000 ft. he heard his heart beating, and his breathing became oppressed; at 29,000 ft. he became senseless; notwithstanding which the aeronaut, in the interest of science, went up another 8,000 ft. till he could no longer use his hands, and had to pull the strings of the valve with his teeth.

DEATHS.

On the 7th Oct., at Hampstead, Louisa Mary, wife of Frank P. Fellows, Esq., of the Admiralty, and eldest daughter of Sir Rowland Hill, K. C. B.

On the 3d Oct., at Ryde, Georgina Mildred, wife of Sir Arthur Kennedy, C. B., K. C. M. G., Governor of Hongkong.

BIRTHS.

In this city, on the 16th Nov., the wife of Mr. Thos. Price, of a son.

A Case of Great Hardship.

On Thursday, the 5th inst., Mr. Wm. Walsh, an honest and industrious settler on Salt Spring Island, was arrested on a warrant issued by Mr. Foord, J. P., and thrust into Victoria gaol for alleged trespass on land belonging to himself but claimed by a neighbor. After remaining in gaol till Monday, not liking his quarters, Mr. Walsh got out on bail, and had the matter brought before the proper tribunal. Yesterday the committing Magistrate was brought before Judge Gray to show cause why Mr. Walsh should not be liberated. The Court had no difficulty whatever in deciding that the Magistrate had no jurisdiction in the case, and the Magistrate having failed to show cause, Mr. Walsh was set at liberty and the transaction was very severely commented upon by the Judge: As might well be supposed, Mr. Walsh has commenced proceedings for false imprisonment, and, without any desire to anticipate the case, we may be permitted to say that impending developments will reflect no credit on the Local Government. In fact it will be found that this outrage is traceable to most censurable transactions in the Land Office—that model department whose praises the organs sing, that bureau in which honest settlers get so nicely diddled out of their money and their land and sometimes even their personal liberty! Surely the time has come when a stop should be put to the antics of that most expensive and worst conducted department.

DOUBLE FUNERAL.—On Sunday the remains of Geo. R. Hudson and Thomas Hodges were taken to their last resting place by a large procession of Oddfellows, Firemen, Pioneers and citizens, headed by Shaffer's Band. The cortege marched from the Oddfellows' Hall to Pandora Street Church, where the Funeral Service of the Reformed Episcopal Church was read (for the first time in this Province) by the Rev. Mr. Cridge. They then proceeded to the cemetery, where the Oddfellows service was read over the graves by Thomas J. Partridge, N. G. of Victoria Lodge. One new and pleasing feature in yesterday's funeral was that the R. W. G. M. of British Columbia granted permission to the Past Grands and Officers to appear in full regalia, a thing never before allowed in this colony. The ceremony was conducted by Victoria Lodge No. 1 of Oddfellows.

WATCHES AND JEWELLERY.—We would direct the particular attention of those wishing to purchase holiday presents to the advertisement of MR. HENRY RUDOLPH Government street, next to the corner of Yates. His stock comprises an elegant assortment of Watches, jewellery, and silverware, all of the finest workmanship and finish, and at astonishingly low prices. Mr. Rudolph manufactures jewellery in a style equal to the best imported, and will be glad to receive orders from those desiring work done. ***

LORD DUFFERIN AT NEW YORK.—The New York Tribune of the 29th of October says: "Lord and Lady Dufferin, accompanied by Mr. Cyrus W. Field, visited the Normal College in Sixty-ninth street, on Wednesday, and subsequently went to several other schools, public and private. The visitors were much pleased with what they saw, and Lord Dufferin made brief and instructive addresses to the pupils. He leaves the city for Canada to-day, after a visit in which he has won many friends."

THEATRICAL.—Mrs. Phelps has opened the Oro Fino Theatre, Portland, with the following company:—J. A. Sawtelle, Mrs. Phelps, Lizzie Morgan, E. A Brady and Kate Zimmer, and Messrs. J. H. LeRoy, J. C. Barrows, E. Kelley, W. J. Gunning, Neville, Henry, Little Vivian and others. Mr. LeRoy is stage manager. The Portland papers speak very highly of the performance of "Rip Van Winkle" by the Company.

DEATH OF LADY KENNEDY.—English papers announce the death at Ryde, Isle of Wight, of Lady Kennedy, wife of Sir Arthur Kennedy, Governor of Hongkong and formerly Governor of Vancouver Island. The demise of her Ladyship will be regretted by all who knew her in this Province. The hospitalities of Government House, when under Lady Kennedy's reign, were dispensed with no sparing hand, and all who called were welcomed with true British warmth and generosity.

THE GAZA AFLOAT.—Mr. Brodrick with his force of men commenced to lighten the ship Gaza of her cargo, yesterday, and had scarcely got to work when the vessel floated and was hauled alongside the Hudson Bay Company's wharf. In the afternoon a survey was held at the instance of the agents, Messrs. Henry Rhodes & Co., and the cargo ordered to be discharged. The damage to the vessel is believed to be considerable.

POLICE COURT.—Three Hydahs, drunk and disorderly, got a week's imprisonment each. Another of the same tribe, who was pugnaciously inclined, got two weeks for disturbing the peace. An old offender, for whiskey-selling, got a day's imprisonment.

"CITIZEN."—We earnestly ask the careful perusal of the letter signed "Citizen," which appears on our First Page to-day.

FOOD FOR THE MILLION.—The North Pacific brought 170 sheep for Stafford & Goodacre, and 63 hogs for J. Heywood.

QUARRY.—Mr. Styles, with 12 men, goes to Newcastle Island to-day to get out stone for the Penitentiary.

Nanaimo.

[From the Free Press.]

The funeral of William Coles, late of Wellington, took place on Friday. The services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Mason, Rector of St. Pauls, and was very largely attended.

The following gentlemen were empanelled as a Grand Jury at the Assizes on Wednesday. Robert Dunsmuir (foreman) C. Walmsley, E. Quennell, J. Ganner, C. Loat, John Hirst, W. E. Webb, Wm. Earl, John Dick, Jas. Beck, Richard Brinn, J. Sabiston, H. Cooper, T. W. Glaholm, D. Hogan, J. Brown, C. T. Warren.

The following is the Report of the Grand Jury:—

That the Grand Jury have repeatedly urged the necessity of extra Constables for the District of Nanaimo, and again beg to call the attention of Your Lordship to this matter.

That we have examined the jail and find that some provisions should be made for heating the same; and that the jail fence is insecure.

That the Town Bidges are in a every unsafe and dangerous state and require immediate attention.

ROBERT DUNSMUIR,
Foreman.

The first social of the season was held in the Lecture Room of Wesleyan church on Wednesday evening last, and was fairly attended. The programme of the evening was as follows: occasional music, &c., by the efficient choir; an able Essay on "Woman's Rights," by a young lady sweet sixteen, name unknown, except to the reader of it—Rev. J. Hall; recitations by Miss Shakespeare, Mr. Brooks and Mr. Norris; readings by Rev. Sexsmith and Mr. Raybould; song by Mr. Waddington; and (we had nearly forgot it) an impromptu speech by Mr. Murphy. All seemed to understand that it was a social and enjoyed themselves accordingly.

The total proceeds of the Wesleyan church anniversary services amount to $115.

REFORMED EPISCOPAL CHURCH.—This Church was crowded with worshippers on Sunday morning and evening. In the morning some 350 were present and many were unable to find seats. Rev. Mr. Cridge performed both services. The organ will be ready for use by next practice-night—Friday. The difficulty of finding seats is one that will have to be grappled with immediately by the congregation, and we can suggest no better plan than the erection of a more commodious edifice.

PARLOR ENTERTAINMENT.—Mme. Duret, assisted by Mme. Dancourt and Messrs. Archer and Fenton, gave a parlor entertainment at Philharmonic Hall last evening. The audience were much delighted with the vocal and instrumental pieces and the recitations, which were greatly applauded. The performance was entitled to better support than it received.

ROAD TAX DEFAULTERS.—Fifteen cases of defaulters in the payment of the Road Tax were heard yesterday by Squire McMillan, J. P., and judgment with costs given in each case. The lowest amount was $8; and the highest, $94. Over fifty summons have been issued at the instance of the Collector. The Government appear to be getting "hard up."

FOR SITKA.—Mr. J. P. Goodhue, agent for the O. S. S. Co., received a telegram yesterday from Portland to the effect that the steamship California had gone to San Francisco for repairs, and that it would probably be ten days before either she or the Gussie Telfair would arrive here on the route to Sitka.

TO SETTLE.—Mr. E. C. Wadhams, formerly of this Province, returned from Oregon with his family yesterday to settle in Fraser Valley. Mr. Wadhams brings farming utensils, horses, etc., and is ready for immediate operations. Let us hope that his object will be furthered by the Government.

PROF. ZAMLOCH, the renowned Arabian magician, arrived yesterday, and will appear in the course of a day or two. The Professor does all, and a great many more, of the renowned Heller's tricks, and performed for many nights at the new opera house, Vienna, and at all the principal cities in the States.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.—D. W. C. Davisson, Sheriff of Tacoma, died on Wednesday last....The only tailor at Steilacoom fell from a wagon last week while celebrating the Democratic victory and died....San Juan gave Jacobs, Republican candidate, 30 majority.

RICH QUARTZ.—The Portland Bulletin says that by the steamer California Capt. Fisk received some rich specimens of gold-bearing quartz, taken from an Island near Sitka and sent down by Major Berry. Two lots assayed over $1,000 per ton and one over $1,500 per ton.

MUSICAL.—We learn that the usual annual concert in connection with St. Andrew's Church has been arranged for, and practice will commence to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock in said Church.

WE observe in English papers an announcement of the death of Mrs. Frank Fellows, daughter of Sir Rowland Hill, and sister of Mrs. Arthur Fellows, formerly of this city.

THE CATHEDRAL.—The attendance at the Cathedral on Sunday was lamentably small—79 in the morning and 54 in the evening—including children. The Bishop of Columbia officiated at both services.

FROM NANAIMO.—The steamer Emma arrived from Nanaimo yesterday morning. A. Finney, Esq., came down by her, and we have to thank him for files of Saturday's Free Press.

SOCIAL.—A social will be held to-night in Wesley Church. Tea will be served at 7. After tea there will be singing and readings.

THE steamer North Pacific from Puget Sound, yesterday, brought 35 passengers, a small quantity of live stock, and two bags of mail matter.

THE latest news from the Cape of Good Hope gold mines, received yesterday via London, is very unfavorable.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 16—The Garland government has made at least one hundred arrests so far, including editors of Republican journals, on charges of treason.

The election of members of the Legislature of the Garland government, at which only Republicans voted, took place Oct. 13. The election of the Smith government, under the new constitution, at which none but Democrats voted, took place early in November.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 16—The amount of money in the safe stolen from the American Express office here yesterday, was seventy thousand dollars.

CHICAGO, Nov. 16—Official returns, received at the office of the Secretary of State, show the majority for Ridgeway, (Republican) for State Treasurer, to be 3,750. Majority for Etter, (Democrat), for Sup't of Public Instruction, 2,171.

Central America.

PANAMA, Nov. 16—A heavy earthquake was felt in Chili on the 26th ult, about 12 minutes after midnight. Duration, thirty seconds; direction from east to west. Much alarm was caused in Valparaiso and Santiago. All the public clocks were stopped, and walls of some of the churches and houses were split. The shock was followed by a rise in the thermometer of 2½ deg. Vessels at anchor felt it very severely. During the week slight tremors were felt.

DELAYED DISPACHES.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 13.—The steamer King Leopold, from Newcastle to this port, is reported to have foundered at sea. Twenty persons were drowned.

The river steamer Sacramento was burned at the wharf in San Francisco Nov. 10th. Loss some $20,000. Chief Engineer Scannell, during the fire slipped and fell, breaking several of his ribs; and a truckman was also severely hurt.

Mrs. Julia C. DeYoung commenced an action for divorce from Gus. DeYoung, in the Third District Court, on Monday. The cause alleged in the complaint is extreme cruelty.

The Democrats are holding an immense mass meeting at Union Hall to-night. The place is crowded to suffocation and hundreds are unable to get standing room. The galleries are filled with ladies. Bonfires are burning in front of the hall and speakers are addressing a crowd outside. There are probably 3,000 persons in the main hall and galleries. Speeches thus far relate almost wholly to recent Democratic victories in the East, but there is evidently less enthusiasm than was expected, and the promised torch-light procession will not come off.

Dominion Mail Summary.

OTTAWA, Oct. 80.—Some unknown person placed a lot of railway ties across the track of the St. Lawrence and Ottawa Railway, in Gloucester, last Wednesday night. The obstruction was discovered and removed before the train came up, otherwise there would have been a fearful disaster.

In the Joliettee controverted election case Judge Olliver has decided the election null and void, with costs against the respondent, Mr. Baby (Conservative). Mr. A. Beaupre (Liberal,) the petitioner, will again become a candidate, and with a pure election his return is certain.

From what we can learn from Argenteuil the election of Mr. Cushing is assured. Mr. Owens has distinctly repudiated all sympathy with the Opposition, but there is no hope for him.

The voting in the County of Addington on Wednesday resulted in the election of Mr. Shibley, the Ministerial candidate, by a large majority.

HALIFAX, Oct. 30—It is a matter of fact that the Local Assembly will be immediately dissolved. The preliminary arrangements are all concluded, and the leaders of the party have been summoned to discuss the "situation," and ratify the programme prepared by the Government.

Who Invented Sausages?

not HEYWOOD.

A correspondent asks us this question: "Who was the inventor of sausages?" We answered: It was unknown. Julius Cæsar claimed to be the inventor, but historians and commentators have universally scouted his claim. There is no doubt in the minds of the best informed writers on the subject but that the Germans were the inventors of the sausage, and that Cæsar in his wars against the stubborn German tribes became acquainted with their way of making the sausage. On his return to Rome, after crossing the Rubicon, he tried to induce the inhabitants of the Imperial city to adopt it as an article of food, but the Romans were rich, they fed on luxuries garnered from the lands which they had conquered and they rejected the sausage. On the morning of the day of his death at the hands of the conspirators, Cæsar sadly informed his wife that Imperial Rome was tottering to its fall, and that fall was hastened by its rejection of sausages. It is a singular and extraordinary fact—one quoted by the great historian Simanides, and Gibbons, and Niebuhr—that no nation has been great as a military power, in modern times, which did not make sausages one of its prime articles of diet. The recent war between Germany and France proves this. Seventy-five years ago the French were intensely fond of sausage, then they overran Europe. But, like the Romans, they took to luxurous living, and the downfall of la belle France followed.

The Germans have always been a warlike nation. They have always been eaters of sausage. The greatest general of modern times, Moltke, dines upon sausage three times a day. He says that no man who is not a lover of sausages can ever make a great general. Some years ago he was called upon while at breakfast by a young officer. He was eating his usual meal of "wurst and pumpernickel," and asked the young officer to join him. The offer was declined on the ground that he never could eat sausages. "Sir," said the great general, looking at the officer with flashing eyes, "the man who cannot eat sausages need never expect promotion from me." The young officer at once applied himself so assiduously to the cultivation of a taste for sausages that in the late war he had risen to be General Von Moltke's chief of staff. A distaste for sausages led to the dismissal of a wooer of the General's daughter. She afterwards married a manufacturer of sausages with her father's approbation, and she is now the happy mother of eight healthy sausage-eating children. Were anyone to say in General Von Moltke's presence that sausages were made out of refuse dogs, he would regard it as a mortal offence. And yet he has never accounted for the decadence in the number of dogs in Germany since sausages became the national food, as frogs are that of the French, potatoes and herrings of the Irish, beef and plum pudding of the English, buckwheat cakes and tobacco of Americans, and Heywood's Pork Sausage of British Columbians. ***

THE VICTORIA BINDERY.—Books of all descriptions bound in elegant Turkey, Morocco or common sheep. Paper ruled to any pattern. Receipts numbered and perforated. Charts or Maps mounted or linen with rollers attached, or with cover suitable for the pocket.—R. T. WILLIAMS at T. N. Hibben & Co's. ***

PHOTOGRAPHY.—Mr. S. A. Spencer returned from San Francisco on Thursday evening with improved appliances for taking and finishing pictures. Mr. Miller, an experienced retoucher from the first San Francisco galleries, came with Mr. Spencer, having been engaged by him. ***

DR. BARNARD

HEREBY TENDERS HIS SINCERE THANKS to Dr. Thompson, of Portland, and the Ladies under his charge, who kindly permitted his witnessing the fillings of some of their teeth during his late sojourn in this city.

Every manipulation of the Doctor's was closely watched, from the adjustment of the Rubber Dam and its appliances to their teeth, to the formation of proper cavities and retaining pits therein, the Packing and Condensation of Gold and the subsequent polishing and burnishing of the same.

The Doctor is satisfied, from what he saw, and from recent operations of his own, that no perfect Filling can be accomplished without using the Rubber Dam and separately Annealing and Malleting every strip of go d into the cavity by itself. Gold thus condensed must last a lifetime.

DR. BARNARD is happy to inform the public that the process of preparing and Filling a Tooth with the aid of New Instruments and appliances is almost as much a pastime with him now as is the insertion of Partial or Entire Sets of Teeth.

Persons not born with a gold tooth in their mouth can readily have a Gold Crown built on a decayed tooth or solid portion thereof that will LAST FOREVER.
